PERSONAL QUOTE

I am an Arizona native who graduated from Arizona State University, and I work for a local community college. I have been involved with technology and the Internet for several decades.

My current hobbies include board gaming with friends, watching far too much YouTube, as well as collecting Transformers toys (which is a childish habit, but I still enjoy it).

I was married for many years, but unfortunately my wife passed away over a year ago. I definitely miss having a companion and I'm looking for someone to talk to. While I'm in no rush, I am hoping that my next relationship is with someone who can over time become my best friend and eventually my partner.

ABOUT ME

THE MOST IMPORTANT THING I'M LOOKING FOR IN A PERSON...

is someone who wants to talk, as well as listen. Honest conversation from both parties is crucial to a healthy relationship.

MY BEST ATTRIBUTES...

are my ability to listen and react with empathy. I attempt to be less "me me me" when in conversation. I am also reliable and caring, and attempt to give more effort to others than towards myself when possible.

THE ONE THING THAT WILL ALWAYS CHEER ME UP...

is finding a new restaurant or establishment where I can try something new. Whether it's a greasy spoon, a hidden gem, or some place with weird desserts: exploring new places to eat and sharing them with others help with my mood.

MY HAPPY PLACE...

is Walt Disney World, Disneyland, or other theme parks. I enjoy the escapism and fond memories of these places.

I WISH I COULD ...

get a new cat in the near future. My last cat unfortunately became ill and passed away. The reason I did not rush to get another pet is because these "family members" are a commitment; as my last cat was almost 19. Other reasons I don't think it's wise: there might conflict with other pets that might come along with a relationship, or the cat might cause allergies for the person I'm with. But I really do miss having a kitty.
