Optimus Prime Cake

JUL 23 2007

MORE: ART, FOOD, MODS, TRANSFORMERS

These guys put together a cake based on the original Optimus Prime Transformers toy. Unfortunately they built it in truck form, so it looks more like a truck than a Transformer. But hey, I mean, a truck cake. That's still pretty cool.

At least they got the shape right. The movie made his front in look like crap, and unoriginal!

13. joflo - July 23, 2007 5:19 PM

i think i'll truck on over to those mario cupcakes, courtney. they were much cooler. this whole thing looks like it's made of fondante, which isn't all that impressive. it's basically modeling clay that tastes like sugar.

#12 even a retarded down syndromed kid with brain damage can tell how much better the new Optimus Prime looks, regardless of how "cool" the G1 Prime was.

17. Todd - July 23, 2007 10:12 PM

Thats funny you say that #16, my younger cousin (with down syndrome) can't even understand the difference between the new and the old! His mind is unable to process it....
